Anitha's mother is destitute, her husband who is addicted to alcohol abuses her mother because she failed to conceive a male child, he is depressed and does not take care of his daughters and beats them up, when they try to ask him for food, he curses them saying I want a male child, and you girls have come out of your mother's stomach.

Her mother in order to raise her children, works at a farm from morning to dawn, she gets paid in the form of food grains, which she uses to feed her four daughters, since her wages are less, she has become a sex worker, just to take care of four children.

She is also a sex worker, soon after working in the farm she goes out into the streets to find some customers who will pay for her body, this way she manages to maintain her family of four daughters. Two of the daughters have been given away in marriage to older men in return for some monetary benefit. She was also about to give away her two younger daughters to some business men, when our pastors along with his church members intervened and rescued Anitha and her sister. We convinced her mother about the safety and security of her daughter and joined her at the TAL feeding center, where she is now enjoying life, attending school, going to church and having a hope of better life.
