My name Sun Kimla, after my parent past away I and my sister live with my old grandma, our living is very hard and I can't go to school and I don't have any relative, long time ago my old grandma was gone and I so hopeless. But in one time I know a kindly people that worship God in church and know Pastor as well, she know about my hardest and then she bring me to meet pastor and family, she hope them can take care well of me, pastor with his wife show love to me and receive me to live in their house's church and support me to study from grade 3 till now, from 2015 to nowadays.

After I stay with them, my life been change day from day, they lead me to know Lord Jesus and I understand myself about all this I have is God's love to me and bless me to meet pastor and his family, so I study hard at school and obey them, I always read the bible too.

I am very thank God father, pastor and his wife to feed me and take care well of me, and for Pastor SETHA for bring me this good information, finally I hope the sponsor who see my letter will share love to me and other poor children who need support, I hope I can finish my study. May God bless your work and your family. Amen!
